In 1992, Cardinal O'Conner suggested that one way to articulate the respect life message would be to erect memorials that would testify to the holocaust of lives that have become expendable through a culture of death. In 1992, the Knights of Columbus acted upon this request and over 1,600 memorials have been erected in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Philippines, Guatemala and elsewhere. In 2000, Fr. Rosendo Rafael Council 8225 here at Sacred Heart in Elgin decided to erect such a memorial, which is located in front of the church. We commissioned an Austin artist to do the artwork. The work is three dimensional, cast in bronze and mounted on polished Texas Granite. The stone work was done by Paul Vricella of the Solid Rock Shop in Kingsland. Joanna Vaughn did the original artwork and per our request printed 100 numbered copies. She requested we give the print a name, "Sacred Heart".

The Austin Disaster Relief Network (ADRN) is asking for volunteers to help in the cleanup efforts for families affected by the October floods. Please contact them at (512) 428-6322 for information.
