Prayer for the Sick

Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest your weary ones. Bless your dying ones. Soothe your suffering ones. Pity your afflicted ones. Shield your joyous ones. And for all your love's sake. Amen.

Father George's "Did You Know?"

What is a Roman collar? In the early Church, priests wore what everybody else wore. Our Lord himself wore the same type of clothing worn back then. However, in the year 313, the Edict of Milan put the Church's priests in a completely different light. Marks of distinction and signs of respect began to arise. Then in the Middle Ages among religious orders (i.e. Franciscans, Jesuits, Dominicans, etc. not secular priests, like your pastor) began to wear distinctive dress, that is, habits. Some sort of clerical dress came about in the eighth century among diocesan priests, or secular priests, of which your pastor is one. Some say the Roman collar I wear evolved for a religious purpose, others say it came from Roman military dress. Regardless of its origins, the symbolism behind the collar is one of dignity.

The Religious Education Program would like to extend a very special "Thank You" to all the groups, family and friends that helped make the Confirmation so memorable. God bless you.

YEAR OF MERCY

God, who is merciful, desires our mercy. Here are some ways to keep to mercy during the Jubilee Year. Try selecting one each week and putting it into practice.

1. Recall a time you were not given a benefit of a doubt, and extend one to someone else.
2. Respond to provocation with the respect you wish a person would show you.
3. Pray every day for the souls in Purgatory. Pray for your dead.

AÑO DE LA MISERICORDIA

Dios, que es misericordioso, desea nuestra misericordia. Aquí están algunas maneras para mantener misericordia en el Año de Jubilo. Seleccione uno cada semana y póngalo en práctica.

1. Recuerde una vez que no se dio el beneficio de la duda, y extienda una a otra persona.
2. Responda a la provocación con el respeto que desea una persona le mostrará.
3. Reze cada día por las almas del purgatorio. Reze por sus muertos.

For parishioners who are impaired and wish to receive the Blood of Christ, you MUST sit in the front pew.

Para feligreses que están discapacitados y desean recibir la Sangre de Cristo, DEBEN sentarse en la banca delantera.
